

VETERAN TEACHERS HONORED

Former Pupils Give Reception And Banquet.

About 100 former pupils of the old Baltimore County Public School No. 13, which was started as a parochial school of St. John's German Lutheran Church, Catherine and Lombard streets, in 1872, gave a reception and banquet last night to their six surviving teachers.

The veteran teachers are Misses Jennie Price, Lydia McGee and Olivia Harrison and F. Otto Lang, Frederick Schreck and August Herring.

The speakers included Charles J. Koch, First Assistant Superintendent of Public Schools; Rev. E. G. Kuenzler, pastor of St. John's German Lutheran Church; W. P. Krause, teacher of the Baraca class, and Max Weissenborn, secretary of the board of trustees of the church.
